

WHAT IS TEAM MONTEREY?

Team Monterey incorporates Defense Department and Homeland Security entities to create a collaborative in joint efforts to increase the national and homeland security of the nation. Each member has a unique mission and an exceptional set of capabilities for accomplishing its mission. Cooperative efforts among team members allow the members to complement each others' efforts in addressing security issues no individual team member could effectively tackle alone.

The work of the team is of great benefit to the nation in areas such as intelligence research and education, information security and identity management. Team Monterey requires the expertise of highly-educated and skilled personnel, which yields benefits to the Monterey area.

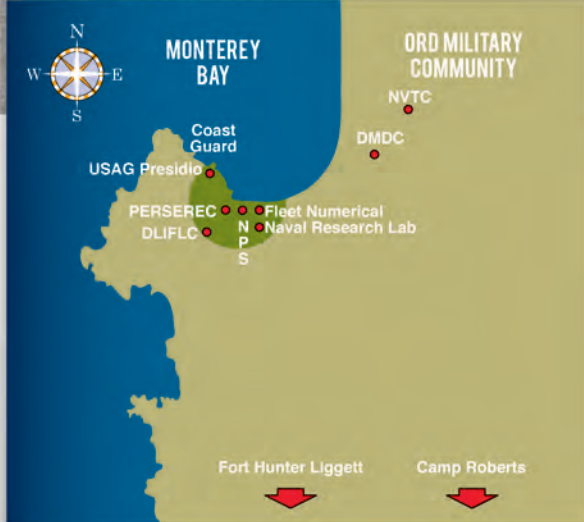

Team Monterey is an active association, meeting regularly to explore new ways in which to collaborate in furthering their joint national security missions.
